Resene art with Mark Rayner – 73

You will need:

- Clean cloths
- Paintbrush
- PVA glue
- Resene Lustacryl tinted to Resene All Black
- Resene Quick Dry
- Resene testpots of Resene Eternity, Resene Spring Rain and Resene Tom Thumb
- Sandpaper
- Wooden picture frame with glass

Step one

Remove the glass from the picture frame. Lightly sand the wooden frame and wipe off any sanding residue with a clean cloth.

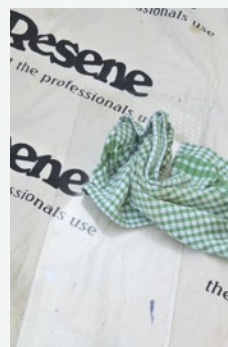

Step two

Apply one coat of Resene Quick Dry to the wooden frame and allow to dry for two hours.

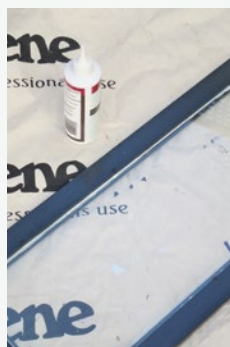

Step three

Apply two coats of Resene All Black to the frame, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

Step four

Carefully clean the piece of glass.

Step five

Place the piece of glass back into the picture frame and fix into position with PVA glue. Allow glue to dry.

Step six

Place the picture frame face down and dribble a little Resene Spring Rain across the back of the glass.

Step seven

In the same way, dribble a little Resene Tom Thumb across the back of the glass.

Step eight

In the same way, dribble a little Resene Eternity across the back of the glass. Allow paint to dry before hanging the picture.

To get the look:

Mark painted the background wall with Resene SpaceCote Flat tinted to Resene Laurel.

Other ideas:

Create a bold primary pattern using Resene Chaos, Resene Fizz and Resene Resolution Blue and paint the frame and background wall with Resene Alabaster.
