

Flower power

Hand-painted daisies in candy-coloured hues transform a storage space into a cheerful chill-out room

Text Bea Taylor Photography Anna Briggs

After trying – and failing – to find a wallpaper that suited both her daughters' tastes, Kirsty Young took it upon herself to create something unique for their chill-out room in Khandallah, Wellington. "We draw all the time at home and flowers are a predominant theme, so it was the perfect inspiration."

Kirsty started transforming the family's storage room in during the first Covid-19 lockdown. Resene Quarter Rice Cake was used on the walls and floor to bring welcome lightness to the room. Katherine wanted a pink wall, so Resene Pink Lace was chosen as the feature wall hue with blues and golds, while Emily's favourite shades feature as the flower stems in Resene Wild Thing, Resene Tacao and Resene French Pass. ●

HOW TO ENTER

Email photos and a 200-word or more description of your space to yhg@aremedia.co.nz with your last name and 'Resene Colour Home' in the subject line. Please include your name, home address, email address, daytime phone number, the names of the Resene colours used, and details of when your space was painted. Please credit anyone who assisted you in choosing your colours.

The five finalists will each appear in Your Home and Garden, starting from this issue. Every finalist will receive a $250 Resene voucher and a feature in the magazine, with the winner taking out the Resene Colour Home Awards and $5000 cash. An extended story on the winning home will feature in the June 2021 issue.
