It's easy to transform a plain paper maché money box into a fabulous pink piggy bank with a little bit of help from Resene.

You will need:

- Paintbrushes (including artists' brushes)
- Paper maché money box (ours came from 'Spotlight')
- Resene Aquaclear gloss
- Resene Quick Dry
- Resene testpots of Resene Alabaster, Resene All Black, Resene Hopskotch, Resene Pink Panther and Resene Sports Star

Step one

Remove the stopper from the base of the money box and apply one coat of Resene Quick Dry, as shown. Allow two hours to dry.

Step two

Apply two coats of Resene Hopskotch to the money box, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

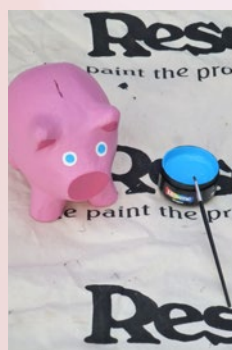

Step three

Paint the snout and inside of each ear with Resene Pink Panther, and allow two hours to dry.

Step four

Paint the whites of each eye with Resene Alabaster, and allow two hours to dry.

Step five

Paint the iris of each eye with Resene Sports Star, and allow two hours to dry.

Step six

Paint the nostrils and pupil of each eye with Resene All Black, and allow two hours to dry.

Step seven

Apply a dot of Resene Alabaster to each eye, as shown, and allow two hours to dry.

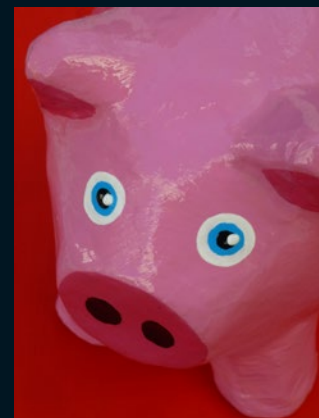

Step eight

Apply three coats of Resene Aquaclear gloss to the piggy bank, allowing two hours for each coat to dry. Replace the stopper in the base of the money box.

To get the look: Mark painted the background table with Resene Lustacryl tinted to Resene Get Reddy.
